Application at a later time

I claim benefits according to SGB II as of ...

Note, your application normally base on the first of the month (§ 37 Abs. 2 Satz 2 SGB II). So you have to declare what kind of incoming you may get inside this month where you want to have the benefits according. You have the possibility to declare the time inside a month when you want to have the benefits. Special Regulations in the future are only possible for the first of month after.

The information are object to the secrecy of social data (see “information sheet SGB II”). Your information will be used to claim benefits according to SGB II on the basis of §§60-65 Erstes Buch Sozialgesetzbuch (SGB I) and der §§ 67a, b, c Zehntes Buch Sozialgesetzbuch (SGB X) You can obtain information on data protection from the Job Centre in your jurisdiction as well as online at www.arbeitsagentur.de/datenerhebung.

People that have requested benefits according to SGB II are required to co-operate. That means the data you provided must be true and complete. Furthermore, you are obliged to notify your jobcenter immediately if your life circumstances change, e.g. you move or get a new job, and these changes could affect the benefits you claim. The obligation to co-operate applies to all persons belonging to your Bedarfsgemeinschaft (community of dependence).

Incorrectly paid benefits due to violations of the obligation to co-operate will in general be reclaimed from all persons entitled to benefits of your community of dependence. If your community of dependence consists of several persons, you, as representative, should involve all persons in filling in the form and coordinate with them all relevant data and the data which apply to them. Please make sure that all members receive all relevant information (e.g. decisions).

Violations can further lead to administrative offences or criminal prosecutions against the person violating the above mentioned obligation. The Jobcenter conducts automated data reconciliation processes with different third parties about income and assets (e.g. income, capital earnings, pensions). Therefore, concealed income and assets are usually discovered later on.
